CASE NUMBER:

VS.

Judgment Debtor

Judgment Creditor

The garnishee, _____
In the above case states as follows:

1. The date that the garnishee received the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings was _____.
2. The total probable amount due on the judgment, including court costs, judgment interest, and if applicable, prejudgment interest, as stated in Section A of the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings is $ _____.
3. The total amount that has been withheld from the judgment debtor's personal earnings and paid to the court while the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings remained in effect is $ _____.
4. (When applicable) the total probable amount due on the judgment (as stated in 2 above) is not equal to the total amount that has been withheld (as stated in 3 above), and the reason for that difference is that the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings ceased to be in effect for the following statutorily prescribed reasons(s) (check whichever apply):
 - (a) _____ A municipal or county court appointed a trustee for the judgment debtor and issued an order that stays the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings.
 - (b) _____ A federal bankruptcy court issued an order that stays the order of garnishment of judgment debtor's personal earnings.
 - (c) _____ A municipal or county court or court of common pleas issued another order of personal earnings that relates to the judgment debtor and a different creditor, and Ohio or federal law provides the other order a higher priority. (Set forth the name of the court that issued the higher priority order, and associated case number, the date that the higher priority order was received, and balance due to the relevant judgment creditor under that order):
